Civil Action H-09-2789

Final Judgment

After its findings and conclusions, the court, on October 8, 2014, considered the damages for the collective participants.

The court admitted two charts, marked as Exhibits A – a detailed chart, and B – a summary chart, identifying ineligible participants and showing wages for eligible participants. Plaintiffs indicated that they had no objection to the information as stated in the charts, and that plaintiffs had decided not to submit evidence to the court about post-trial actions by Perry's.

Now, consistent with the evidence in the trial and the hearing of October 8, 2014, the court finds that the following claimants are not eligible to participate in a recovery; therefore, these individuals' claims are dismissed with prejudice:

The remaining claims are sustained in the amounts shown in the charts admitted as Exhibits A and B. For those eligible claimants who are still employed with Perry's, it must pay these people directly by a separate payroll check. For all other eligible claimants, Perry's must prepare a separate check for each claimant, in the amount of the wage claim applicable to that person, and deliver these checks to plaintiffs' counsel for distribution.

Within thirty (30) days, Perry's must report that the checks have been disbursed.

All other claims of the plaintiffs are dismissed with prejudice.

Perry's violated the Fair Labor Standards Act, but the plaintiffs made superfluous assertions that needlessly increased the cost of the litigation for all parties. Each party will bear its own attorney's costs and fees.
